

I've got a little on Ken Peters. No birth date and no death date. It's possible he's still around. Looks like he's a local boy to where I live. He's mentioned in Van Nuys, CA and Long Beach, CA newspapers. I live just a mile or two from Van Nuys and about 40 miles from Long Beach.

He was acting up through the early 1960s. I have saw him mentioned in roles through about 1962... Maybe as late as 1964. Then, in 1966, he reappears as a Reverend... and his real name is apparently Kenneth Fagerlin. It seems Ken Peters may have been a 'stage' name.

He was a popular speaker for women's clubs and the like in the late 50s and early 60's.. I think it was during this period he was transitioning from actor to ministers. The talks he gave had titles that seemed to be of a spiritual bent.
